3. Claims 1, 3-4, 6-7, 16-20, 28-33 and 46-59 are pending and allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of Kuroda (U. S. Patent 6,470,448) teaches users' digital signature are sent to a transaction proof device of a notary public party.

In regarding to independent claims 46, 50 and 54, Kuroda either individually or in combination with other prior art of record fails to teach or suggest generating corresponding media objects for each of a plurality of participants in an online marketplace, wherein each of the media objects includes media to present a seal of certification for each of the participants as an image, and presenting the media objects as portion of websites associated with the online marketplace.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
